SAY IT HERE™

Dear CSUSA Conference Attendees,

On behalf of the Crime Stoppers USA Board of Directors, welcome to New Orleans! We are absolutely thrilled you've joined us for this year's conference. Over the next few days, you'll gain not only powerful insights and strategies to strengthen your program operations, but also the inspiration to bring those ideas home and put them into action.

This conference would not be possible without the dedication of our hardworking conference committee and our host, Crime Stoppers GNO. Their vision and determination have helped create a first-class training experience, filled with meaningful learning and well-balanced opportunities for growth.

Equally important are the connections you'll make. Crime Stoppers thrives because of the diversity and creativity of its local programs. While we all share the same mission and core values, each program's unique approach offers valuable lessons we can learn from one another. So please take full advantage of this time to connect, network, and build lasting relationships.

We also extend our sincere gratitude to our sponsors. Their partnership makes an event of this magnitude possible. Be sure to stop by their tables, learn about their services, and personally thank them for their support of our mission.

At CSUSA, our goal for these annual conferences is simple: to ensure you leave energized, informed, and empowered. We are confident you'll find the classes engaging, the speakers impactful, and the overall experience both productive and memorable.

Thank you for being here and thank you for your commitment to making a difference through Crime Stoppers.

With warm regards,

Chris Cameron
Chairman, Crime Stoppers USA

Dear Friends,

It is my honor to welcome you to New Orleans for the Crime Stoppers USA National Training Conference, hosted by our very own CrimestoppersGNO. We are proud to have you here in Louisiana as you gather to share knowledge, strengthen partnerships, and continue the important work of supporting law enforcement and keeping our communities safe.

Here in Louisiana, we stand with you in supporting those on the frontlines of public safety and ensuring Crime Stoppers has the resources to continue making a difference.

While you are here in New Orleans, I hope you take some time to experience all that makes Louisiana so special. As I always say, when you're here, you're family.

Thank you for the work you do each and every day to protect our communities and strengthen trust between citizens and law enforcement. I wish you a productive and inspiring conference and hope your time in New Orleans leaves you with lasting memories.
